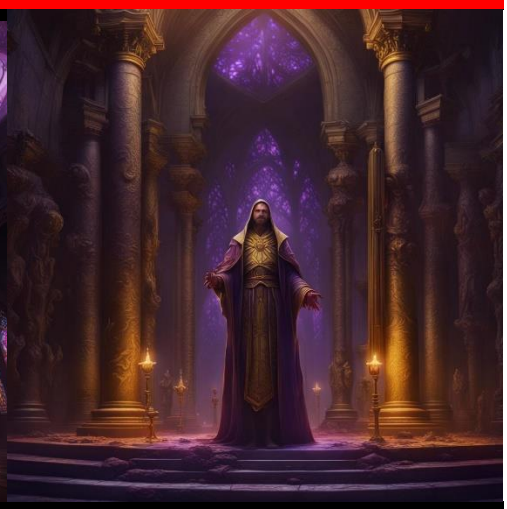
My Detestable Church Of Laodicea



“I find My people offensive, My son. They refuse to do My will. They will not obey. They are detestable people, members of the Laodicean Church of the End Time. Repent, and do the works as at first, or I will take away your Candlestick, says the LORD. Do not take this lightly, O detestable people in My sight, for your eternal destiny is at stake. O people of sin, members of My End Time Church, repent right now on your knees for being worthless, and members of every evil work. I see what you do in secret, and I Am displeased, O evil Church of the End Times. Repent right now on your knees for being worthless in My sight, or else I will take away your Candlestick. Then what will you do, O detestable Church of Satan and sin, worthless in My sight, and reprobate of every good work? Your LORD has spoken. Amen.”
